

The Midlands Federation of Museums & Art Galleries

Honorary Treasurer of The Midlands Federation of Museums and Art Galleries, voluntary.

Place yourself at the heart of Mid Fed and the museums and galleries profession in the region.

- Gain new skills, knowledge and experience to support your career development
- Meet new people and develop your professional networks
- Learn about charity law and the role of the trustee
- Be among the first to hear about the latest issues affecting the museums sector in the region
- Make an active contribution to debate and advocacy about issues affecting the profession
- Enable a successful organisation to deliver its objectives

Treasurer's responsibilities:

- Receive and take responsibility for all Federation income
- Keep the Federations accounts and arrange for them to be audited each year
- Prepare the annual financial statement of the Federation
- Keep all books, papers and cash belonging to the Federation
- Ensure that the Council is kept aware of the Federations finances and liabilities
- Maintain agreed procedures to ensure that all income received is applied solely to promote the aims of the Federation.
- Input ideas for seminars along with the whole council in response to MidFed member and sector needs for training seminars
- Help the organisation to develop as a robust organisation support it's members
- Be a trustee for the organisation
- A vital contributor in council meetings, delivering the aims and objectives of MidFed
- You might also represent the MidFed at regional or national events