

The Midlands Federation of Museums & Art Galleries

President of The Midlands Federation of Museums and Art Galleries, voluntary.

Place yourself at the heart of MidFed and the museums and galleries profession in the region.

- Lead the MidFed for the next 2 years.
- Place yourself at the head of MidFed and the museums and galleries profession in the region.
- Participate in regional and national forums on behalf of the MidFed
- Gain new skills, knowledge and experience to support your career development
- Meet new people and develop your professional networks
- Learn about charity law and the role of the trustee
- Be among the first to hear about the latest issues affecting the museums sector in the region
- Make an active contribution to debate and advocacy about issues affecting the profession
- Ensure that the MidFed is a successful organisation meeting the needs of its members and the sector across the Midlands region.

President Responsibilities:

- Chair meetings of the committee and members.
- If required, to lead and contribute to political and publicity campaigns within the sector both regionally and nationally.
- Represent the Federation at meetings and events.
- Hold responsibility for the organisation ensuring that legal and financial responsibilities are met.
- Prepare the annual Presidents address to the Federation and its members.
- Ensure that the Council is kept aware of issues that may affect the Federation
- Input ideas for seminars along with the whole council in response to MidFed member and sector needs for training seminars
- Help the organisation to develop as a robust organisation and support its members
- Be a trustee for the organisation
- A vital contributor in council meetings, delivering the aims and objectives of MidFed.